

Hood College Athletic Center

Frederick, MD

Warner Construction contracted TEI as their electrical subcontractor and teamed up to complete the 41,000-square-foot, state-of-the-art multipurpose Hood Athletic Center, which includes the 1,600-seat BB&T Arena, an observation deck, a two-level fitness center, cardio room, an athletic training room, locker rooms, an athletic hall of fame recognition display, concession area, hospitality, meeting room and office spaces. The scope of work provided by TEI included: the demolition of all existing electrical, alternate lighting package, fire alarm, temporary lighting, power and more.

GC: Warner Construction

Start: April, 2011

Completed: September, 2011

TEI Electrical Contractors
5728 Industry Lane
Frederick, MD 21704